UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA President Clark Kerr told a Harvard audience that:

"A University anywhere can aim no higher than to be as British as possible for the sake of the undergraduates, as German as possible for the sake of graduates and research personnel, as American as possible for the sake of the public at large ----- and as confused as possible for the sake of the preservation of the whole uneasy balance."

HOME ECONOMICS STYLE SHOW TONIGHT

Home economics students at the University of Alaska will model their own creations Thursday, at the Department's annual Spring Show. The program will begin at 8 p.m. in room 218, Eielson Building. The public is invited.

Original designs and unusual imported fabrics will be featured in this years showing of coats, suits, and dresses. All of the models are from the classes in clothing construction taught by Miss Vena Clark, associate professor of home economics.
